Accounting Services
Delivering numbers

In today's competitive market, accounting and documentation, tax and VAT compliance, and financial planning, amongst others, are an essential part of business, no matter how small or big your business is. With continuous developments and business growth, the need of such services has become increasingly challenging. At Accounting Services Ltd, we believe that having an up-to-date and solid financial structure is a base for growth.

The company provides a complete range of accounting services to various individuals and companies. Our professional set up ensures that we have a dedicated account manager for every client and through our diverse specialised team we are able to provide a full range of services revolving around accountancy, administration, consultancy, and tax advisory.

Whether you need advice, assurance or financial work to get done, at Accounting Services you will enjoy and benefit from our personal and professional service. Our mission for you is delivering numbers, providing you with the best advice and financial documentation in order to reach your goals and increase the growth of your business.

Malta's strategic geographical position has made it a hub for international businesses and Accounting Services takes pride in providing services to many international clients from Central Europe, Scandinavia, Italy and Libya, besides others. This is what Mark, a Copywriter, Online Marketing Specialist and Business Owner at Systemato, says about us:

"The Accounting Services team is thorough and leave no stone unturned, but most importantly for me, they understand what issues I face in my situation."
