In today's competitive market, accounting and documentation, tax and VAT compliance, and financial planning, amongst others, are an essential part of business, no matter how small or big your business is. With continuous developments and business growth, the need of such services has become increasingly challenging. At Accounting Services Ltd, we believe that having an up-to-date and solid financial structure is a base for growth.

The company provides a complete range of accounting services to various individuals and companies. Our professional set up ensures that we have a dedicated account manager for every client and through our diverse specialised team we are able to provide a full range of services revolving around accountancy, administration, consultancy, and tax advisory.

Whether you need advice, assurance or financial work to get done, at Accounting Services you will enjoy and benefit from our personal and professional service. Our mission for you is delivering numbers, providing you with the best advice and financial documentation in order to reach your goals and increase the growth of your business.

Malta's strategic geographical position has made it a hub for international businesses and Accounting Services takes pride in providing services to many international clients from Central Europe, Scandinavia, Italy and Libya, besides others. This is what Michael Camilleri, one of our clients, says about us: "The services have always been efficient and trustworthy, making it easier for me not to lose any precious time and focus on my business ... Working with this company has always been successful."
